THOMAS CROGER'S NEW PATENT IMPROVED
ÆOLIAN HARP

Will produce music in the garden, conservatory, summer house, on the balcony or window ledge of the nursery, or on board any vessel on the water, or on the branches of a tree, &c., without a performer. It merely requires placing on a table or stand, or laying across the branches of a tree, or it may be suspended from one, or from any convenient place. It does not signify whether it is placed perpendicular, horizontal, or diagonally; the object is to cause the draught to pass through where the strings are, which will set them in vibration, and bring forth the most melodious sounds ever heard. At a distance the tones are truly delightful; and what renders it so amusing is, that any one not being aware of its position cannot trace from whence it proceeds; the effect is so peculiar, it seems to be in every direction at once. All persons are sure to be surprised and delighted at the romantic effect; it may be used by any one totally unacquainted with music; and will produce an endless source of amusement by its various sounds. Full instruction is attached to each one in such a way that it cannot be damaged or removed. Prices 14s., 16s., 18s., 20s., 22s., 24s., 28s., 32s., and 36s., according to the number of strings and finish.

THE NEW PATENT EDUCATIONAL TRANSPOSING METALLIC HARMONICON, 2 Octaves, with Semitones, 15s., 20s., 30s., and 65s.; 2½ Octaves, 18s., 25s., 35s., and 73s. 6d.; 3 Octaves, 21s., 30s., 40s., and 84s. They are all of the same quality of tone; it is the finish of the case which makes the difference in the prices of the same size. A very handsome book of instruction is sent with each one. The notes cannot be put out of tune or broken. Illustrations and testimonials post-free. With respect to the utility and advantages of this instrument, see editorial notice of the Musical Times, April 1st, 1861.

T. C.'s newly-arranged Price List, for Notes, Keys, and every article for Harmonium making, may be had post-free.

PATENT GOTHIC HARP, quite new, a splendid tone, and elaborately carved and gilded, 43 strings and 8 pedals, double action, by Schwieso, 263, Regent-street, London (late foreman to Erard), price £18.; one fine old Violin, with bow and case to fit, 50s.; one fine old Violoncello, in case, by Banks, £3 10s.; one fine old Violin, by Alliot, £2. 10s.

C. and Co. beg to call the attention of cornet soloists and leaders of bands to their newly-invented PATENT ARTISTE CORNET, price £4 4s.; admitted to be the purest toned ever invented.

TESTIMONIALS.

Walsall, September 28, 1861.
Sir,—The instruments arrived safe. The Bombardon is very fine indeed; also the five Artiste Cornets are the best Cornets I ever heard; the tone is very sweet and correct. The slide for holding the superfluous water is very essential, especially in solo playing. Wishing you great success,

Yours truly, W. HULME, Bandmaster.

Cheadle, Staffordshire, October 7th, 1861.
Gentlemen,—I received the Patent Artiste Cornet, and must admit that it is the best I ever played on. The tone is very sweet, and better in tune it could not be. The workmanship is very good; and I have no doubt you will have a great demand for them as soon as it becomes known.

Yours very truly, J. WOOD, Bandmaster to Rifle Corps.

Instruments wholesale and retail. List of prices on application.—Address, Campton and Co., Burbage, Leicestershire.
